Each Report of Condition ("Report") which is to be made by a financial institution shall be published in accordance with instructions provided by the Director of Business Regulation or his or her designee. The Report must be printed in a newspaper in general circulation in the State of Rhode Island.

The copy of the Report for the use of the printer should be prepared on the face side of this form. The published information must agree in every respect with that shown on the Report rendered by the financial institution. Any item for which no amount is shown may be omitted in the published statement. All signatures must be the same in the published Report as in the original Report, but the signatures may be typewritten or otherwise copied on the Report for publication.

Printers proof of the Report for publication should be carefully checked, since republication will be required of Reports in which errors appear.
